Movie Night

Miles Kendig knows too much! One of the CIA's top international operatives, he suddenly finds himself relegated to a desk job in an agency power play. Unwilling to go quietly, Kendig, with the aid of a chic Viennese widow, puts himself back in the game by writing a memoir exposing the innermost secrets of every major intelligence agency in the world. The CIA wants Kendig dead, but he refuses to cooperate. He's having too much fun!

"Hopscotch is a smart and stylish tale of international intrigue and a cat-and-mouse comedy" - Filmstruck, 1980.

Now considered a classic, Hopscotch has been added to the prestigious Criterion Collection. Fine for the whole family, with runtime of 1 hr, 45 minutes
