Package Room Launch Date Coming Very Soon

Finishing touches are in the works, SO we are expecting the new PT Package Room managed by LUXER, to be opening soon. We are optimistic a Grand Opening announcement with a date and instructions for registering, managing your account and retrieving packages, will be released within the next week. Following that, packages and deliveries will be accessible 24/7!

In the interim, we continue to post the latest news and announcements on our website at www.ptcondo.com. This includes details regarding LUXER and the basics about what to expect from the new Package Room.

So the transition to this service is most convenient for you, we need to be sure we have all current e-mail and cell phone number on file for every resident who expects to receive packages. If you have any doubt we don't have this on file for you, please fill out the following and return this form to the office, or drop it off in the slot at the lobby front desk:*
