

Report to the Board 20221010 from the Social Commission

Our first event of the Autumn season was a TGIF reception, on Friday, September 16th, 5:30-7:30 in the Lobby Lounge. We had 100 people meeting, mingling and enjoying sharing time with their neighbors. Thank you to Betty Terry-Lundy and Sherman Lundy for the donation of a case of wine and to John Laffler and Off Color Brewing for the donation of 120 16-oz cans of 4 varieties of craft beers. Thank you to our many volunteers – Bob Shamo, Terry Gorman, Jean Shamo, Carol Erlbach, Catherine Kestler, David Folkes, Betty Terry-Lundy, Joe Guzzardo, Angela Gottschalk, Sue Burke, Steve Weiss, Baldev Mehra, Rita Allison, and Monique Fouant. Thanks also to – Tim Patricio, Kirsty Evans, and the Management Team, Patrik Janic, Dilan, Kenneth, Maria, Szymon and the Maintenance Team.

Our next event is a Movie Night this Saturday, October 15th, featuring a movie more for adults, Murder on the Orient Express (1974 version). Doors open at 6:45 pm in the Party Room. During intermission we will serve warm apple pie and ice cream. Hope to see you there.

We have started a Holiday Chorus, suggested and led by Cairn Hutter, meeting Wednesday nights at 7:00 pm in the Mall Atrium. Consider joining in.

Future events, in the planning stages, are a Karaoke Night on November 12th, our Holiday Cheer party on December 9th, and a family movie night on Saturday, January 14th.

To receive direct communication from the Social Commission email us at ptcasocial@rcn.com with a request to be added to our listserv. We will be very happy to do so.

Sincerely submitted,
