Seven-11 on Bryn Mawr Closed

The 7-11 @ 1055 Bryn Mawr is now closed after years of being “problematic.” According to an ASCO rep, and nearby neighbor, police have been called numerous times to resolve issues at or near the store.

A couple of reviews found on YELP:

“I try to avoid places like this. I come here mostly when I am desperate or drunk and need munchies.”

“I will never go back into this establishment! Every time I enter this store there’s always something going on. Either the clerk is arguing with a customer or the clerk is very rude.

Overnight Parking Ban

Chicago’s overnight parking ban started December 1st. Signs are posted on streets where the parking ban is in effect until April 1st.

If you see a posted sign that says NO PARKING between 3am and 7am that means that the winter overnight parking ban is in effect on this street whether it snows or not.

Plan ahead to make sure you don’t get towed!
