

Report to the Board 20221212 from the Social Commission

The Social Commission hosted its Holiday Cheer party, last Friday night, to great success with 120 guests, young and old, singles, couples and families and a good representation of the diverse population that makes up our community. There was plenty of food and drink to represent that diversity and beautiful live harp music played by Lauren Hayes. In addition to enjoying each other's company we also toasted Happy Birthday to David Folkes and to Bea Stieber, who has now turned 100!

This was a large party and can only be done with an enormous amount of contributions. Thank you to Tim Patricio and our Management Team for their continued ultimate in support and to Patrik Janic and his amazing Maintenance Staff.

Thanks to the volunteers who worked hard before, after and during the party to make it all so pleasurable and to run so smoothly – Terry Gorman, Bob Shamo, Steve Weiss, Monique Fouant, Debbie Bell, Betty Terry-Lundy, Marty Fiesler, Jean Shamo, Lloyd Allison, Sue Burke, Becky Rossof, Shira Behal, Catherine Kestler and Eve Brownstone.

Thanks also to the marvelous cooks and bakers who donated outstanding home made and store bought food – Eve Brownstone, Debbie Bell, Bob and Jean Shamo, Monique Fouant, Carol Erlbach, Bea Stieber, Rita and Lloyd Allison and Pam Woll.

The Social Commission thanks Dr. Paula Castillo for the donation of a beautiful cut glass dish on which she brought some very delicious bacon wrapped dates to the Holiday Cheer party and then also donated the dish. The dish will add a lot of class to our events.

Next up is our family movie night (final movie selection to be announced) on Saturday, January 14th.
